4th Quarter 2017 Q&A

Coming Fall 2017:

Our all new, up-to-date, completely mobile-compatible website!

We'll announce the launch date soon, but in the meantime, please know that we are in the finishing phase of development.

Some things will look different, but we believe that your new browsing, searching and purchasing experience will be intuitive and easy to navigate. We'll also be there to help you feel comfortable on the new site. We'll keep you posted!

From the WFM Support Team:

Audio Samples on your Computer and Mobile Devices

Q: Why can't I hear the audio samples on my computer or mobile device?

A: The reason you cannot hear samples could stem from one or more of several reasons:

If you are trying to listen from a mobile device, unfortunately, our site is not yet fully mobile compatible. We are working on it! So for the time being, please make sure you are at a laptop or desktop computer when listening.

Also, please check your volume levels on your computer and/or the speakers attached to your computer.

If these do not seem to be the problem, it's possible that your computer has been updated to a new operating system. You may need to update your internet browser, as a result. If you update your browser, you may also notice a small message on your browser screen saying that your Flash is out of date. Just reinstall Flash and your audio samples should work for you.

Also, we have found a further set of instructions given by Adobe Flash Player. Click on this article, and you will be able to go into your browser's preferences as per these instructions:

<https://helpx.adobe.com/flash-player.html>

Also, check to make sure that your Java Script (which enables streaming) is turned on in your settings

In summary, check your volume, make sure it is not on mute; update your browser and possibly update Flash. Then check your settings in preference (as per the link above) — and finally click on the "Listen to Sample" button. As a final check, click the "Buy Sheet Music" button if you are on a composer page, and then click the "Listen to Sample" button there.

We will be rolling out our new website this fall, and we deeply appreciate your patience with us as we bridge over to the new and current technology.

We hope that this is helpful!

Wishing you all the best,
WFM Support

Solo Thoughts Song Titles

Q: Why do we sometimes see song titles posted more than once in a quarter, or in consecutive quarters -- and conversely, -- why are certain titles left out that would clearly go with the Bible Lesson?

A: This is a great question. The answer is that the Solo Thoughts editors work to bring you a creative and informed set of titles each quarter.

Sometimes, the editors will repeat a title used from the last quarter, or again in the same issue, because that title seems to highlight more than one Bible Lesson in an important way.

Conversely, in order to highlight new music and new composers whenever possible, the editors may sacrifice listing titles that were recently used in a previous or current quarter of Solo Thoughts. On the whole, WFM and the Solo Thoughts editors feel that it is very important to bring new musical ideas for Bible Lessons and to introduce new titles wherever appropriate and possible.

Tip: Hang on to your Solo Thoughts from previous quarters in a given year and perhaps make notes on solos that you think would work well for future Bible Lessons.

Listing Choral Music Titles in Solo Thoughts

Q: Why does Solo Thoughts often include choral music titles when Solo Thoughts is geared to the solo singer in church services?

A: We've found through experience that choral music titles can broaden and refresh a church soloist's repertoire.

The many choral titles that we list are very well suited to being performed by a soloist. In most cases, the soloist usually needs to do some extra work to map out the melody, though it may move between staves at different points in the choral score.

Through some planning with the accompanist, these choral songs-turned-solos can bring new life and music into the church service. To cite a couple of examples, Joseph Martin's "Song of Unity" and his "Song of the Spirit" work beautifully as solo songs for the church service.

Update on posting Solo Thoughts

Q: How far in advance does Watchfire Music post each new issue of Solo Thoughts?

A: Historically, we have posted each new quarterly issue of Solo Thoughts exactly 6 weeks in advance of the new quarter. About a year and a half ago, we extended the post deadline to fall somewhere in the 5 to 6 week range in advance of the new quarter.

Due to what appears to be a later schedule of the release of the quarterly Bible Lesson Citations from the CSPS, we are now further shifting our posting deadline to fall within the range of 4 to 6 weeks in advance of the new quarter. We'll always work to keep the posting as close to 5 to 6 weeks in advance as possible.

More Questions

Q: How do I find Solo Thoughts on the new watchfiremusic.com website?

A: Good news! It can be found on the top Nav Bar!

Just look for the "Resource" drop-down menu on the top Nav Bar of watchfiremusic.com. Click "Resources" and then click on "Solo Thoughts CS."

Q: I ordered sheet music from Watchfire Music but lost the download link. How can I get my music?

A: Whenever you order sheet music from WFM, you receive an automated Order Confirmation Email directly from our website. In that email is a Download Link.

Just scroll down in your email to the Download Information area and click on the link provided. Once you click on it, your browser will open up your Purchase page where you can download the digital sheet music that you ordered, along with any other digital files you may have purchased such as mp3s.

Q: What is a [Solo Treasure] and where do I get the music?

A: A [Solo Treasure] is an out-of-print song that is no longer available for purchase.

As a courtesy to you, we include out-of-print titles that you may already have in your church music library, and we match them to upcoming Bible Lessons. When you see the label [Solo Treasure] listed after a title, this indicates that the song is no longer in print circulation. Therefore, no link is provided to purchase the song.

Also, transpositions are for your personal use only and not for further distribution or resale.

Lyrics and Music:

As we branch out beyond the old standards to search for new and interesting music, we are recommending solos that come from a variety of sources, including contemporary CS composers, but we are also including music from other denominations. Some churches are limited in the words they want to hear; others allow a broader range of lyrics.

As we bring you newer music, there are more styles of music, including gospel, contemporary Christian, spirituals, theatrical, and pop music. Not all of these styles will appeal to every congregation. We suggest you might clear the words and music with your music committees if there is a question.

In general, we will list the some of song lyrics unless they are easily referenced, such as hymn words (i.e., check the Christian Science Hymnal) or Psalm 23 (i.e., check the Bible). Due to copyright restrictions full lyrics may not always be listed. ALL LYRICS QUOTED ARE FOR STUDY PURPOSES ONLY.

In the case of using altered lyrics, please note that changing lyrics is illegal without the permission of the copyright holder, unless the lyrics are PD (public domain—published before 1923). If you must change a lyric to fit the needs of your congregation, please note that the changed lyric that you perform in church or anywhere cannot be published, recorded, broadcast, or performed in a paying public performance without the express consent from the copyright holder.

Please Note:

We continue to work to find all the URLs to get you directly to the listed music. If you find a broken link, please let us know. It's one of the ways we keep our databases up to date -- through the generous help of our subscribers. You can reach us at support@watchfiremusic.com

In Summary

As we continue to evolve Solo Thoughts and bring more interesting sacred music to your attention, we sincerely hope that you enjoy this research tool. We hope that it serves as a springboard of inspiration and ideas as you continue on your adventure of presenting inspirational and healing music in your church services!

● Beautiful River, The (2012)

Music by Michael Adamczyk

Lyrics by Robert Lowry; John Newton and Charles Wesley

Instant Digital Sheet Music: <http://www.watchfiremusic.com/song.php?smid=1201>

This peaceful arrangement of the familiar hymn, "Shall We Gather At the River" is given a flowing river-like treatment in the accompaniment, as if one were drifting down stream gently. The comforting familiar Lyrics work beautifully with this score.

Lyrics: 1. Shall we gather at the river. Where bright angel feet have trod. With its crystal tide forever, Flowing by the throne of God? Yes, we'll gather by the river, The beautiful, the beautiful river; Gather with the saints at the river, That flows from the throne of God. 2. See the streams of living water, Springing from eternal love. We'll supply the sons and daughters, And all want of fear remove. Who can faint. while such a river, Ever shall out thirst assuage? Grace which like the Lord our Giver, Flows on from age to age. 3. Ere we reach the shining river, Lay we every burden down. Grace, Hid spirit will deliver, And provide a robe and crown. Yes, we'll gather by the river, The beautiful, the beautiful river; Gather with the saints at the river, That flows from the throne of God. 4. Peace be to this congregation; Peace to every heart therein. Peace, to earnest of salvation; Peace the fruit of conquered sin. Peace that speaks the heavenly Giver; Peace, to the worldly minds unknown; Peace, that floweth like a river, From the eternal source alone.

● Fruit of the Spirit (1977) [Solo Treasure]

Music and Lyrics by Karla Carey

Source: Prov 11: 30; Gal 5: 22,23,25; Phil 1: 27

Listen to MP3: <http://www.vocal-works.com/sounds/Solo%20bank/120805D+.mp3>

Contemporary. Moderate difficulty. Very good melody. A straightforward presentation of the words.

Lyrics: The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; by their fruits ye shall know them. The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, and peace, gentleness, goodness and faith, meekness, longsuffering, with temperance and truth, Against such there is no law. If you're led by the spirit, you're not under the law. Walk in the Spirit, the Spirit of truth. For the sword of the Spirit is the word of the God, the word of the living God, the word of the living, the living God. Stand fast in one spirit, stand fast in one mind. Know ye the spirit of God. Love, joy and peace, the fruit of the Spirit, the fruit of the Spirit of God, the fruit of the Spirit of God.

● Let Me Be (2013)

Music by Arlene Pourroy

Lyrics by Steve Okwor

Instant Digital Sheet Music: <http://www.watchfiremusic.com/song.php?smid=1234>

This contemporary, fairly easy solo is beautiful and moving, and has heartfelt words set to a quiet, prayerful melody.

Lyrics: Let me be with the Truth that sets me free. Let me be with the Holy Ghost, the Comforter. Let me be! O let me be, let me be! But if I am like Martha, let me be Humble, listening to Love's chastening. Let the Truth abide with me Erasing all worldly rush and hastening. Let me be! O let me be, let me be! Dear God, this is my prayer today: To learn and follow Your way. O let me be, let me be, let me be Filled with courage and with patience When the world is clamoring. Let me be peaceful in God's presence. Let me be one with Life's revealing. Let me be! O let me be, let me be!

● Happy is the Man (1981) [Solo Treasure]

Music and Lyrics by Eric H. Thiman

Source: Prov 3: 13,15-18

Listen to MP3: <http://vocal-works.com/sounds/Solo%20bank/080224R.mp3>

Shippable Hard Copy: http://www.sheetmusicplus.com/title/the-church-soloist-eight-sacred-songs-sheet-music/8142305?ac=1&aff\_id=453001?aff\_id4

A beautiful solo with interesting modern harmonies from the English school of composition, this is a congregation favorite.

Lyrics: Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her, and happy is ev'ryone that retaineth her. She is more precious than rubies, and all things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her. Length of days is in her right hand, and in her left hand riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace, her paths are peace.

● In Praise of Wisdom (1997)

Music and Lyrics by Ben Steinberg

Source: Prov 3: 13-15,17-18, adapted

Listen to MP3: <http://vocal-works.com/sounds/Solo%20bank/040912R.mp3>

Shippable Hard Copy: http://www.sheetmusicplus.com/title/in-praise-of-wisdom-sheet-music/513751?aff\_id453475

This choral piece works very effectively as a solo piece with an a capella opening, and memorable recurring motifs. Though somewhat difficult, this is a gentle, contemporary piece with lovely melodies.

Lyrics: Wisdom, wisdom is better than gold. Happy is the one who finds wisdom For it is better than silver and gold, more precious than rubies, more precious than rubies. Happy is the one who finds wisdom for it is better than gold, more precious than rubies. It is a tree of life, It is a tree of life, to those who hold it fast. It is a tree of life to those who hold it fast. Its ways are ways of pleasantness and all its paths are peace. Let us number our days, Let us
